interesting?

interesting?

YES?

so

we need new tools to come-up with business models beyond profit

my mission today is
to help you...

... systematically
look at business
models

... and learn how to develop business
models

what do business models have to do with social & environmental impact?

it's key if you want to come up with innovative ways to “do good” AND
“do well”

discuss with your neighbor what a business model is and write down your definition

which elements did you mention when you defined a business model?

there is a lack of definition

few companies understand their existing business model well enough

so we came up with a way to master business models through...
